RE: Amended Year End Report (7/1/01-12/31/01) Dated 7-17-2002

Dear Mr. Young:

I am writing this letter in response to your correspondence dated October 8, 2002

With regard to your first inquiry stating that my schedule B has itemized disbursements that fail to include the address and purpose, I have reviewed said report and have added the additional information. Said information is included in a second amendment which I am E-filing simultaneously with this letter.

In relation to your inquiry that refers to an apparent corporate contribution. Be advised that this draft was inadvertently deposited into the CROWLEY FOR CONGRESS account. In fact, the check was not even made out to Crowley For Congress. (a copy is enclosed). This was only discovered during the preparation of the year end report in January of 2002. I have enclosed a copy of the check and check stub that indicates on January 17, 2002, Crowley for Congress refunded the amount to the intended party JOE-PAC NON-FEDERAL. Said refund was previously reported.

Your inquiry as to Schedule A of said reports states that certain contributions appear to exceed the limits set forth by the FEC. Enclosed herein, please find copies of refunds that were made with regard to the following individuals, to wit:

- 1) Mohammad Aminullah- $1,000.00
- 2) Ken Rudzick - $250.00

Said refunds will be reflected in the Committees upcoming reports.

Contributions are not tax deductible on Federal Tax returns. Federal law requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in a calendar year.
